Crops have made good growth and are well cultivated except in the upper Trinity watersheds, where bottom lands are still flooded.

A Texas correspondent writes to a local firm as follows: "The entire Texas crop is about two weeks late. Whenever you see that Texas has had lots of rain you are always eafe in figuring on a bountiful cotton crop unless the rain is during the picking season. We do not often get too much rain down here. Generally speaking I can state that the crops are fairly good, with condicrops are fairly good, with condi-tion a little above the ten year average, and that we have had a fine season in the ground. The acreage has been only elightly reduced."

Exports yesterday were about 4.500 bales. The total is now 8,018,000 bales, egains! 8,782,000 last year. Exports thus far this week have been 53,000 bales, against 41,000 for the full week last year. The exports have furnished the surprise of the season thus far.

On the subject of a Government bond issue the Secretary said: "The fiscal year is not ended yet, and when it is there will be plenty of time to look over the situation with regard to the Government's finances and to see which way the belonger tends. way the balance tends." Discussing the new regulations of the ederal Reserve Board for providing for the admission to the reserve system of State banking institutions, Secretary McAdoo stated that he had no doubt that all the important State institutions would in the course of time realize that it would be to their advantage to enter the Federal reserve system. When informed that one of the principal objections of the State institutions to have to tie up a portion of their re-serves in a non-dividend paying se-curity he said: "That is not so. Al-though I have not received the official figures. I understand that several of the short time all of them will be on a dividend paying basis. In addition to this the public as it becomes better ac-quainted with the Federal reserve system will realize the strength which it imparts to a member of its organization, and other thinking persons will prefer to deposit their funds in institutions which Mr. McAdoo stated that he had been too busy to call at the Federal Reserve Bank in this city. Regarding the outlook for business generally Secretary McAdoo stated that he was very opti-mistic. HIGGINBOTHAM NOTE USED IN GROUT CASE

Former City Magistrate's Widow Called as Witness by the Prosecution.

MORE LOANS IN EVIDENCE

District Attorney James C. Cropsey continued yesterday to introduce testimony against ex-City Comptroller Edward M. Grout, who is being tried before County Judge Lewis and a jury in Brooklyn on a perjury charge. An effort was made to show that many worthless notes were entered as "good and collectible" assets in the Union Bank report which forms the basis of the indictment. There are forty-four notes, aggregating $18,442, in the latest batch. Taken collectively they represent one of the eighty-five supplemental items which Mr. Cropsey is permitted to present along with the forty-eight major items comprised in the Grand Jury's bill. The prosecution asserts that the assets president were overstated by more than $2,000,000. This latest item, according to Mr. Cropsey, shows that notes were carried which had gone to protest a year or more before, and that in many instances judgments had been returned unsatisfied and efforts to collect apparently abandoned.

In reading notes and judgments into evidence Mr. Cropsey made a distinction in those which showed that Mr. Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Payton Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Payton Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Payton Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Western Railway, which is owned by the Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Indianap tion in those which showed that Mr. Grout had personal knowledge of the matters involved and those of which he complained on "information and belief." The notes presented in the afternoon were held by the Merchants branch of the Union Bank. William J. Allister, manager of the branch when Mr. Grout was president, made the identifications.
